The wedding ceremony will be followed by a reception and dance at the Colonial Hotel.

Miss Magoon's Masquerade.

The masquerade dance at which Miss Emmeline Magoon entertained her friends on Saturday evening was a success in every way. There were about a hundred guests present, who were greeted by Mr. John Henry and Mr. Allie Magoon, brothers of the young hostess. There were a few handsome costumes to be seen, though the majority were dressed in Yama Yama suits. Miss Magoon and Miss Laura Low were dressed as baby dolls and looked sweet. Two of the handsomest gowns were those of Miss Esther White and Miss Beatrice White, who were dressed as Colonial dames. Miss Marjorie Gilman looked charming in the Oriental costume of an Egyptian maiden. Miss Ruth Soper was dressed as a Western girl and made a splendid appearance. There were only a few other costumes that were particularly noticeable. Mr. Alapaki Smith was dressed as a Mandarin and Mr. Wrenne Timberlake as a monk. There were a number of young men, including Duke Kahanamoku, who wore prison garb and who entered the ball room treading the lock-step rather than tripping the light fantastic. Some among those present were Miss Rose Herbert, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Orpha Starrett, Miss Catherine Paris, Miss Catherine Ashley, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Elsie Wickham, Miss Marjorie Gilman, Miss Pearl Littlejohn, Miss Pearl McCarthy, Miss Abby Lucas, Miss Lorna Jarrett, Miss Aileen Jarrett, Miss Ethel Whiting, Miss Mary Low, Miss Atkinson, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Carrie Ackerman, Miss Alexandrina Strauch, Miss Wilhelmina Strauch, Miss Laura Low, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Catherine Jones, Miss Evelyn Scott, Miss Lucy Dimond, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Edith Smith, Mr. Charles Herbert, Kelvin Keech, Mr. Dickson Nott, Mr. Alapaki Smith, Mr. Kenneth Smith, Mr. Gilbert Foote, Mr. Arch Brown, Mr. Kenneth Smith, Mr. Arthur Gilman, Mr. Moore, Mr. Floyd Emmons, Mr. Fred Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Berndt, Mr. Roller, Mr. Cornelius Sullivan, Mr. Luther Hough, Mr. Reginald Melanphy, Mr. Guy Macfarlane, Mr. Ernest Parker, Mr. Henry Huestace, Mr. Will Desha, Mr. Willie Harris, Mr. Sam Carter, Mr. John Gifford, Mr. Closson Emory and others.

Miss Elliott Leaves.
Miss Priscilla Elliott, who has been in Honolulu for several months as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ross Kingsbury, left in the Maryland on Saturday for her home on the mainland. Miss Elliott was much feted while in Honolulu, and her many friends here will miss her at the social events that will take place this season. The trip on board the cruiser will no doubt be a most delightful one, for Miss Elliott is not only the guest of Mrs. Philander C. Knox, but her father, Captain John Elliott, is in command of the Maryland.

Social News From Washington

(By C. S. ALBERT.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—The President's plans for autumn in dispatches from Beverly, Mass., are to the effect that he and his family will not leave Parametta for good until October 22 and may even remain later if the weather continues good. Both he and Mrs. Taft have then a little stay at Hot Springs in mind before the President goes home to Cincinnati in time to vote. Mrs. Thomas K. Laughton, Mrs. Taft's sister, is also remaining at Beverly. Mrs. Taft will accompany the President when he leaves for the city Sunday night to keep his social engagement here Monday, when the third White House garden party of the month will be held or a reception indoors substituted for the delegates to the International Hygiene Congress.

Mrs. George von L. Meyer, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, gave a dance last night for the employees of Rock Maple farm, her summer home at Hamilton. It took place in the Hamilton town hall and was attended by many persons from estates along the North Shore. Mr. Meyer is shooting in New Brunswick, and will return September 28.

Konstantin Theodor Dumba, at present Austro-Hungarian minister to Sweden, has been nominated to succeed Baron Hengelmüller, the retiring dean of the Diplomatic Corps in Washington, according to reports received here. Baron Hengelmüller, Baroness Hengelmüller, and their little daughter are now at their home in Austria, where they arrived recently from Bar Harbor.

Among other diplomatic changes announced at the State Department is the appointment of Fred W. Carpenter minister to Morocco since June, 1910, as minister to Siam, filling the vacancy left by the death of Hamilton King last month.

Another interesting change is that of Irvin B. Laughlin, formerly secretary of the American embassy at Berlin, to the embassy at London, to relieve Williams Phillips, now en route to America. The marriage of Mr. Laughlin and Miss Therese Iselin took place two days ago at the country home of the bride's father, Adrian Iselin, at New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mrs. Richard N. Ely and her daughter, Mrs. John H. Gibbons, wife of Captain Gibbons, superintendent of the Naval Academy, have arrived at the Mt. Washington at Bretton Woods, N. H., from New York.

WRITING PAPER ECONOMIES

The woman who would get the most for her money buys her writing paper in quantity at an annual sale.

The reason for these sales is that the manufacturers accumulate small lots of discontinued papers. They are not cheap qualities or seconds, merely styles that are not novel.

It is possible to get four quires of paper and 100 envelopes for a dollar, and there is a choice of different weight, texture and color of the paper, various shades of blue, gray, lavender, cream and white, also stripes and bars in self tones. These come in two sizes, usually letter and note.

Marking varies according to color. Two-colored letters are most expensive; plain gold, silver or a single metallic color costs about 25 cents a quire; a single plain color, gray, blue, violet or brown, 10 cents a quire, and embossing in relief without color, about 5 cents a quire. These are standard prices almost everywhere the year round, the reduction being on the price of paper.

In buying paper by the quantity it is not wise to choose novelties. An inconspicuous color and good quality is always good. Many women adopt a certain tone and kind of paper and make it individual. Thus, the girl who loves violet will have pale violet paper with a deeper tone or silver for the stamping, while the transparent envelopes are lined with violet tissue paper of a deeper shade than the envelope.

Gray paper or very pale blue is also permissible, but it is bad form to use garish stationery.

LACE AND GASOLINE.

Never clean rare old laces with gasoline, as is the common practice. Gasoline, which is a great grease remover, will take the natural oil out of the lace, and make the threads brittle, stiff and liable to break into holes.
